AUTOMOBILE, USED TO CARRY WHISKEY, IS ORDERED SOLD BY JUDGE OF DISTRICT COURT

Echoes of the notorious Jensen-Ryan liquor case are heard in the judgment handed down by Judge Agee in district court today.

The judgment reads:
"Upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law heretofore made and filed in this case, and in accordance with the law in the premises, it is ordered and adjudged, that the intoxicating liquors heretofore seized by the sheriff of Weber county, state of Utah, and described in his return, and in the notice in this case, to-wit, 515 pints of whiskey in pint bottles, and the Hudson automobile therein described, and the same are forfeited to the state of Utah, and that an order shall issue to the sheriff of said county directing him to forthwith publicly destroy the said intoxicating liquors, and to sell the bottles in which the same is contained, and the said automobile at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, after having posted a notice of such intended action in some conspicuous place on the court house building in said Weber county, not less than ten days next preceding the day of auction, containing an inventory and brief description of such property, and the time and place to be offered for sale, and that the said sheriff make return of his doings and the manner of execution of said order."

Judge Agee found the automobile in question was not the possession of J.
H. Relyea as claimed; that it was the possession of P. B. Ryan in whose business it was being used by Jensen at the time the arrest was made, when the car was found by the sheriff's officers to contain the 515 pints of whiskey.

The conclusion reached by Judge Agee is provoking considerable interest and discussion in legal circles, and others who are interested in the strict administration of Utah's prohibition law show pleasure in the result reached.

PUBLIC PLACES MAY OPEN ON NEXT WEDNESDAY, IF EPIDEMIC CONTINUES TO SHOW DECREASE

Yesterday was the lightest day's report received by the city health board since the beginning of the influenza outbreak, on October 13. Thirteen new cases of the disease were reported to 5 o'clock last night.

Inquiry at the board of health elicited the fact that, on Wednesday next, a meeting of the city and county commissioners, city and county boards of health, together with the emergency health committee, will meet under the presidency of the mayor to go into the matter of lifting the ban on public as-semblies. Should the disease show continued marked signs of decrease as during this week, there is a confident feeling that Ogden will be herself again in plenty of time for a wise and happy as well as merry Christmas season. This will only come to pass though as the entire populace realizes that the quarantine of the sick has evidently proved itself a wonderful measure, and also as the people determine that they will still further profit by its use.

of the funeral will be announced later.

WALLACE RUBY OF OGDEN WAS DROWNED

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 14.—Lieutenant O. W. Ruby, an army aviator attached to the North Island aviation school, was drowned in the Pacific ocean late yesterday when he made a dive from a height of about 200 feet and failed to lift the nose of the plane in time to enable the plane to regain its flight. Ruby, engaged in aerial gunnery practice, made a dive to shoot at a target towed by another airplane.
Ruby drowned before the body could be extricated from the machine. His home was in Ogden, Utah, to which city the body will be shipped.

E. L. TITLEY TO MEET
BROTHER IN FRANCE

E. L. Titley, who sent to Ogden a piece of German propaganda which was published in the Standard a week ago, has written home to his mother and brothers and sisters, telling them that he is enjoying a fine holiday in Manchester, Eng., near the district in which he was born and brought up, and that from Manchester he is departing for Valenciennes where he will meet with his brother Joe, also a Canadian soldier and formerly in the employ of the Amalgamated Sugar company, and there enjoy another period of brief furlough before returning to the final duty which will bring them across the seas again with the Hun well whipped and home eagerly looked for.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

An appeal is going out to the people of Ogden in the behalf of the fine work of the Children's Aid society.
Cold weather is causing distress among many poor families and gifts, financial or of supplies will make the Christmas season a real time of joy to many little ones who are now suffering want.

The Children's Aid society dispensary will be kept open two days a week, Friday and Saturday.
One reason for the society not asking any aid before now is due to the fact the school children have in the past given entertainments at different times at which they have raised funds for the society. The fact that the schools are closed, has prevented the holding of the entertainments.

The members of the committee who are working in behalf of the society are:

Mrs. Archie Bowman, president; Mrs. W. G. Dalrymple, treasurer; Mrs.
A. V. McIntosh, secretary; Mrs.
Charles Barton, Mrs. Edward Bichsel, Mrs. T. H. Davis, Mrs. David Keckles, Mrs. S. S. Smith, Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mrs. A. B. Corey, Mrs. Fred N.
Hess, Mrs. Albert Scowcroft, Mrs. J.
M. Barrows, Mrs. J. M. Canse, Mrs.
John Culley, Mrs. J. R. Cooper, Mrs.
Florence Littlefield, Mrs. J. W. Abbott, Mrs. I. N. Pierce, Mrs. R. D.
Robins.

Contributions can be made to any of the directors or to the Utah National bank.

APOSTLE M'KAY URGES GOOD WORK

Apostle David O. McKay, telegraphing from Santa Monica, California, says:

"Editor Standard: Cannot reach home for the opening of Christmas roll call. Will you please urge through your paper that the chairmen of Red Cross branches kindly put forth efforts to secure a large enrollment in accordance with president Wilson's message. No cause is more worthy. May Weber prove loyal in this, as in other war and peace activities."

RAILROAD MEN ARE IN COURT ON LIQUOR CHARGES

The case of the State versus H. G.
Kelly, W. H. Butler and C. F. Cook, conductor and brakemen of a U. P. freight train, who were arrested by the sheriff's force for having in their possession in the caboose of their train two handbags containing whisky, came before Judge Roberts this morning.

Attorney Horn, appearing for H. G.
Kelly, asked for continuance until Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and bail was fixed at $300 and the continuance allowed.

W. H. Butler's case was also continued until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and bail fixed at $300.

C. F. Cook, the other brakeman, appeared in his own defense and pleaded not guilty, saying that he was working as brakeman at the head of the train and that he had little or no occasion to go to the back of the train during the journey from Evanston, and that, for thirty minutes before the train left Evanston, he was busy on the engine and that he knew nothing whatever about the whisky.

The charge against Cook was dismissed, Judge Roberts being convinced that the man was not guilty of the charge against him.

WM. PURDY HOME

William H. Purdy of this city has returned from Camp Lewis where he has been in training since last August.
Mr. Purdy formerly conducted a sign painting business in this city and his many friends welcome him back.
He has been honorably discharged from the service and arrived home December 11.

"Bill," as he is familiarly known among his friends in Ogden, was pleased with his service at Camp Lewis.

He will reside with his mother at 282 Twenty-eighth street. While at the camp, sad news was received by Mr. Purdy of the death of his father in Ogden. At the time the camp was under strict quarantine and he was not allowed to come home to attend his father's funeral.

SAVE CELEBRATION ON THE DAY THE BOYS COME HOME

Editor Standard: Our boys are coming home and we are asking for an opportunity to show them how proud we are and how glad to welcome them home again. But will this welcome take on the form of rowdiness enacted at the time of the peace celebration?
Will they forget the respect that is due the uniform as they did then?
Every one on the street knows that many young men and women enjoyed themselves by knocking men's and women's hats from their heads, to be trampled under foot of the passing crowds. This in itself was disgusting, but when I saw a young man knock the head from the head of a soldier boy and immediately after a young woman knocked the cap from the head of an officer, both hat and cap being kicked and trampled before they could be rescued by their owners, I could hardly restrain my indignation. It was to me as they had struck these boys in the faces or trampled underfoot our own Stars and Stripes. Let us have rejoicing but let us demand respect for the returning soldiers and sailor boys and the uniform which represents the grandest nation on earth.

WOMAN FAINTED WHEN ALLEN JONES, IN BIG MAZZEI DREW DRIVE, MEETS AN HIS GUN OGDEN BOY

Before Judge Roberts in municipal court, preliminary hearing was on this morning in the case of the State versus Peter Mazzei who stands charged with the attempt to use a deadly weapon on the person of F. E. O'Connor on the early afternoon of December 9, in the railway yards at the Union Depot.

O'Connor is in charge of the cleaning gang at the yards and testified that, though Mazzei has worked for him for about six weeks, he had never before had occasion to complain of his conduct but that on the date in question, shortly after the lunch hour, he found Mazzei in a drunken condition and calmly advised him to go home, and tried to make clear that he was not discharging him from his job. Mazzei evidently lost his temper and refused to be reconciled and ultimately backed up against a standing dining car, pulled a gun and threatened O'Connor with, "I'll get you."

O'Connor wisely opened his office door and disappeared from sight.

Three witnesses in the persons of Mrs. Oliver Drysdale, Mrs. Jack and Miss Williamson testified to the incident, though Miss Williamson says she could not swear to seeing the gun because she fainted at the time. The three young women were working in the dining car against which Mazzei was standing when he threatened O'Connor.

A. G. Horn, representing O'Connor, asked for dismissal of the charge, saying that it would be possible for him to entertain a charge of assault in behalf of his client but that the testimony was not conclusive as to the charge mentioned in the complaint.

Judge Roberts denied the motion and defendant is bound over to appear in district court.

PARCELS ARE BEING MAILED EARLY

Ogden citizens have responded well to the urgent plea that they mail their Christmas parcels early and prevent congestion at Christmas time," said Postmaster Browning this morning. "But keep up the good work and don't wait until the very last minute, and then we can assure everyone prompt delivery."

Mail is being cared for at the local postoffice with the greatest possible efficiency and all congestion has been avoided up to the present time. The Railway Mail service department has qualified men each day to assist in the holiday rush, and, with an increased force, the best possible service in the handling of mails is assured.

DAVIS HAS BEEN TAKEN TO MORGAN

A. T. Davis, who was captured driving Mrs. Ferrand's notorious Paige car again laden with liquor, about seven miles from Morgan, by the Weber county sheriff's officers, was turned over to Sheriff Robinson of Morgan county where the criminal hearing will be held.

The liquor will be retained by the Weber county sheriff and final disposal of the case will be before Judge A. W. Agee at Morgan, December 27 and 28.

PERLEXITY.

"You used to promise anything that might please the voter's fancy."

"Yes," observed Senator Sorghum, "I don't try that any more. Voters are getting so national you can't even tell what kind of a promise is going to suit their fancy."
